GENRE-BENDING MUSIC SENSATION JELLY ROLL WILL ELECTRIFY THE MYSTIC AMPHITHEATER JULY 7

Tickets on sale June 2

PRIOR LAKE, Minn. – May 30, 2023 – Music chart-topper and multi-genre hitmaker Jelly Roll will take the Mystic Amphitheater stage at 8 p.m. Friday, July 7.

A three-time Country Music Television (CMT) award winner, Jelly Roll is known for pairing deeply personal lyrics with music that blends old-school rap, classic rock, country, and soul to create music that is therapeutic, raw and tackles the heaviness of life. He has consistently released new music, toured, and topped various charts, amassing a devoted fan base and over four billion career streams to date.

Jelly Roll released his album “Ballads of the Broken” in 2021, ahead of a sold-out hometown show. The introspective album shows Jelly Roll’s growth both as an artist and as a man, drawing from personal experiences to share his truth. The album features his multi-week number one rock hit, “Dead Man Walking,” and his number one country debut single, “Son of a Sinner.”

Now after a stellar breakthrough year as an American songwriter, Jelly Roll is well on his way to multi-genre stardom. He has been number one on Billboard’s Emerging Artist chart for a record breaking 25 weeks ahead of his highly anticipated album, “Whitsitt Chapel,” to be released June 2. This country album will feature Jelly Roll’s newest hit songs, “Need A Favor,” a riveting anthem, and “She,” a soul-stirring ballad.

A new documentary about the artist, “Jelly Roll: Save Me,” is now available to stream on Hulu. Featuring exclusive access, never-before-seen tour footage, and interviews with the musician and those closest to him, “Jelly Roll: Save Me” tells Jelly Roll’s story of being incarcerated as a teen and adult, now using the power of his platform to raise awareness and funds for at-risk youth across the country.
